ADDRESS CORRECTION REQUESTED RUSH — TIME DATED

The handmade paper and mixed media work of Joan Rhine will be on display through May at the Faculty/Alumni House, with a reception for the artist on Wednesday, April 9, from 4:30-7 p.m.

Rhine's work combines several textures and colors to form inspirational landscapes and abstract collages. A Bay Area artist since 1979, Rhine also teaches at UC Extension and Laney College in Oakland.

LPPI Alumni-Faculty Association's Ninth Annual Meeting and Luncheon on Saturday, April 19, will feature Erica Goode, a science writer on leave from the SF Chronicle and a fellow at the Center for Advanced Studies in Behavioral Sciences, Stanford. She will speak on "The Mad Scientist and the Ex-Mental Patient: Reflections of Psychiatry in the Media." The luncheon meeting will be held from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. at Le Camembert Restaurant in Mill Valley.

Luncheon reservations at $30 are due by Friday, April 4. For information call x67474.

A reminder from the Accounting Office: All personnel action forms which are effective July 1 should be approved and submitted to the Accounting Office, Box 0812, before Friday, June 13. Departments also are reminded of the following dates:

- Fri., May 2: Academic personnel action forms are to be received in the Office of the Vice Chancellor-Academic Affairs, Box 0400;
- Fri., May 9: Staff personnel action forms are to be received in the Personnel Office, Box 0832. Instructions concerning merit increases will be issued at a later date.

Vol. 12 No. 6, Mar. 29-Apr. 11, 1986

TODAY & TOMORROW

MAR. 29-APR. 11, 1986

Thirteen campus employees will be honored for their outstanding contributions to the campus and community during Founders Day on Thursday, April 3. Awards will be presented in five categories at the traditional awards luncheon in the Millberry gym.

The Chancellor's Award for Exceptional University Service, given annually to long-term employees who have consistently performed at a level beyond what is ordinarily expected, will go to:

- Bessie Brooks, hospital assistant, Dermatology Clinic and a UCSF employee for 26 years;
- Iris Gartner, supervising technologist, Microbiology Clinical Laboratories at SFGH and a UCSF employee for nearly 26 years;
- Haydee Gunn, prinicipal clerk, medical records and a 16-year campus employee;
- Kathleen G. Hecker, administrative assistant, Division of Cardiology for 18 years;
- Ron Overman, materiel management truck driver for 18 years;
- Lois Wong, data control clerk, patient accounts and a 15-year UCSF employee.

The Distinguished Nurse Award is presented annually by the departments of nursing to recognize an outstanding contribution to nursing. Mary Dunselman will be honored for her leadership at the Psoriasis Day Care Center, where she has been head nurse since 1973.

The Jeanne M. Yalon Memorial Award, established in 1984 in memory of the distinguished oncology nurse, recognizes dedication and caring service to cancer patients. Hilary Parsons will be honored for her consistently excellent and compassionate care to patients on 11-Long. She has been a UCSF employee for eight years.

The Chancellor's Award for Public Service will be given to the three following UCSF employees, who have performed outstanding service to the campus and/or community beyond that required by their University position:

- Oscar Salvatierra, Jr., MD, professor, surgery and urology and chief of the Transplant Service, for his work in making a broad range of organ transplant services available to the public. He helped develop state and federal legislation to promote a more humanitarian approach to distribution and funding of organ transplant services.
- Hiroshi Tokubo, hospital risk coordinator, for his continuing commitment to several community organizations concerned with social and political justice, including the Japanese Community Youth Council and the Japanese American Citizens League. Tokubo will receive the Edison T. Uno Award, given in memory of the late UCSF assistant dean of students and one of the first winners of the Chancellor's Award for Public Service.
- E. Leong Way, professor, pharmacology and toxicology, will be recognized for his efforts to modify attitudes and legislation concerning drug abuse. He is an early advocate for sensible and rational approaches to this problem.

The Medal of Valor, the most prestigious award a police officer can receive, will be awarded to UCSF police officers John Fox and Reggie Hamilton, for helping rescue some 20 people from a burning building in the Western Addition in January.

Preceding the awards luncheon at 11 a.m. in Cole Hall, Bruce M. Alberts, PhD, chair of the Department of Biochemistry and Biophysics, will present the Faculty Research Lecture, the highest honor the UCSF faculty can bestow on one of its members. Alberts will discuss "Finding by Binding: The Resurrection of DNA Replication Machines."

The big Founders Day employee bash will be held on Wednesday, April 2, from 4 to 6:30 p.m. in the Millberry gym. All campus employees are invited to dance to the tunes of the Forty-Niner Orchestra. The band also will play music from the top 40 at the Founders Day Student Dance that evening in the Millberry gym from 8 to 11 p.m.

MOBILE MAMMOGRAPHY SCREENING SCHEDULE

Women now can have low-cost mammograms—x-rays to screen for breast cancer—from a mobile van that travels to convenient shopping or downtown locations in San Francisco and remains for a week at a time.

Women need the approval of their physicians to have the mammogram. The procedure takes approximately 20 minutes and costs only $40. To make an appointment call 990-0459 between 9 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The van will be at the following locations for the next two weeks:

Mar. 31-Apr. 4: Westlake Shopping Center, on Park Plaza Dr., adjacent to Brentwood Market.

Apr. 7-11: California between Steiner & Fillmore.

NEWS BRIEFS

A new Outpatient Cardiac Rehabilitation Program has begun at the Medical Ce.ıter at UCSF. Designed for those who have had recent heart attacks or heart surgery, or who have disease of the blood vessels which serve the heart, the program helps people restore their strength and fitness while reducing their risk of further heart trouble.

Participants wear heart monitors and attend three one-hour sessions a week for 12 weeks. The sessions include stretching and a variety of exercises designed to increase the heart's capacity for work while decreasing the heart's workload in everyday activities.

Staff also discuss the way the heart works, diet, weight loss, smoking cessation, stress reduction, safe exercise and medication. The program is covered by most health insurance plans. For further information contact program coordinator Charles Witherell, RN, x64488.

The many factors influencing personal, professional and social reactions to the AIDS epidemic will be explored at a national meeting on "AIDS and the Medical Humanities," Thursday and Friday, April 10 and 11, sponsored by the Society for Health and Human Values in cooperation with UCSF.

Open to all interested persons, the two-day meeting will take place at UCSF-Laurel Heights, 3333 California.

Overall purpose of the event is to bring the perspectives of the humanities to bear on our understanding of AIDS and our responses to the AIDS crisis, according to Albert R. Jonsen, PhD, chief of the Division of Medical Ethics and president-elect of the Society. He and Guenter Risse, MD, PhD, chair of the Department of History and Philosophy of Health Sciences, are program codirectors.

Conference registration is $70; continuing education credit $30. For registration information call x63093.

The Chancellor has sent a letter to every person on campus regarding safety regulations and the strengthening of programs developed by the Office of Environmental Health and Safety. If you have not received the letter with two attachments from environmental health and safety director Reynold F. Brown, MD, call x62401.

Attention faculty: There now are three two-bedroom, University-owned apartments on Fifth Avenue available for rent. For further information call Diane Dillon, x62888.

Several informational meetings have been held and additional meetings are being scheduled to provide faculty, staff and students with information on the new library. The architects and campus representatives will be on hand to present the plans and answer questions. Meetings are scheduled as follows:

- Mon., Apr. 14, 4-6 p.m., HSW 300: For faculty and students. Sponsored by the Academic Senate.
- Thurs., Apr. 24, noon: For staff employees (tentative date).
- Tues., Apr. 29, 7:30 p.m. Toland Hall: Public hearing on the Environmental Impact Report. Those wishing to provide testimony may do so that evening. No advance registration is necessary.

The new library plans currently are on display on the second floor of the library.

The Division of Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery now is providing 24-hour dental emergency services in the Moffitt/Long Hospitals Emergency Room where a special dental facility has been set up. The service formerly was provided in the Maxillofacial Surgery Clinic.

Patients should call the Emergency Room at x61037 where they will be seen by the resident on call. All emergency services short of extractions and complicated surgical procedures will be provided. After treatment, a copy of the emergency room record will be sent to the patient's primary dentist.

Cardiologist Kenneth Shine, MD, chief of medicine at UCLA, has been appointed the John J. Sampson Visiting Lecturer. He will be visiting the week of April 14 to present medicine grand rounds on campus and at SFGH and a special lecture at the VAMC. He will discuss:

- Mon., Apr. 14, 12:15 p.m., Room A-125, Building 200, VAMC: "Myocardial Metabolism—Lessons from the Seals & Whales."
- Tues., Apr. 15, 11:30 a.m., Carr Auditorium, SFGH: "Digitalis Glycosides—Mechanisms and Management."
- Wed., Apr. 16, 11 a.m., Cole Hall: "Ionic Events in Myocardial Ischemia—Implications for Myocardial Preservation."

The Sampson Lectureship was established in 1979 to honor the UCSF clinical professor of medicine and senior physician at Mount Zion. Sampson has been associated with UCSF for over 50 years. He is one of the world's leading cardiologists and past president of the American Heart Association.

The 1986 School of Nursing Research Day will be held on Friday, April 4, in Toland Hall. Focusing on the findings of seven research programs in the areas of aging and chronic and long-term illness, the program will begin at 9 a.m. with opening remarks by Susan R. Gortner, professor, family health care nursing, followed by:

- 9:30 a.m.: "Homeless and Psychiatric Symptoms Among Chronic Patients." Linda Chafetz, associate professor, mental health and community nursing;
- 10 a.m.: "Health Conception, Perceived Health Status and Health Behavior of Persons Diagnosed with Chronic Disease: An Exploratory Study." Shirley Laffrey, assistant professor, mental health and community nursing;
- 11 a.m.: "Lay Decisions in the Care of Marginal Ailment and Chronic Ailment." Leonard Schatzman, professor and vice chair; Virginia Olesen, professor, social and behavioral sciences;
- 11:30 a.m.: "Growing Up Chronically Ill: A Survey of Chronically Ill School-Age Children's Use of Time Out of School." Bonnie Holaday, assistant professor, family health care nursing;
- 1:30 p.m.: "Characteristics, Needs and Care Requirements of Vigil Visitors." Nancy Lovejoy, assistant professor, physiological nursing;
- 2 p.m.: "Cachexia: A Study of the Nutritional, Metabolic and Behavioral Indicators in Patients with Small Cell Carcinoma of the Lung." Ada Lindsey, professor and chair, physiological nursing;
- 2:30 p.m.: "Nurse Practitioner Problem-Solving, Risk Identification and Chronic Illness Component." William L. Holzemer, associate professor, physiological nursing.

A new lecture series on "Current Issues in Aging" will be held on campus on six Tuesdays in April and May. Sponsored by the UCSF Academic Geriatric Resource Program, the lectures will be held in the Langley Porter auditorium from 12:10 to 1 p.m.:

- Apr. 8: "Preventive Dentistry for the Elderly." Samuel Wycoff, professor, dental public health and hygiene;
- Apr. 22: "Drug Therapy of Insomnia in the Elderly." Richard Ron Finley, assistant clinical professor, pharmacy;
- Apr. 29: "Changes in Renal Functioning with Aging." Edmund Lonergan, associate clinical professor, medicine;
- May 6: "Management of Behavior Problems." Carole Deitrich, assistant clinical professor, mental health and community nursing, School of Nursing;
- May 13: "Clinical Approaches to Dementia." Lawrence Feigenbaum, associate dean and clinical professor, medicine;
- May 20: "Post-Hospital Care in a Changing Policy Environment." Institute for Health and Aging director Carroll Estes, professor and chair; A.E. Benjamin, assistant professor, social and behavioral sciences, School of Nursing.

It is not mandatory, however the series coordinators would appreciate an indication of planned attendance. Please call Susan Kornblatt at x65802.

Construction on the Beckman Vision Center began Monday, March 24, and will block access to the permit lot behind the UC Hospital building for an estimated 18 months, until September, 1987.

Barricades will be set up just around the corner leading from Kirkham into the lot, leaving a few parallel parking spaces available along the curve. Pedestrian traffic, and emergency and delivery vehicles still will be able to pass through the area, subject to delays caused by the construction.

Some parking spaces behind the Laboratory of Radiobiology and Environmental Health will be opened around June 1 of this year. Those working nearby can expect construction noise between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Residents of the neighborhood also can expect truck traffic along Kirkham and 7th Avenues during these hours.

Permit holders for the lot behind UC Hospital can obtain information about alternative parking from Jon Gledhill, x62566 or Bob Cannon, x62496 in the Parking Operations Office. Concerns about construction should be directed to project manager Jeff Cavener, x65343 of Capitol Project Management.

Neuropathologist Paul Kleihues, MD, from the University of Zurich will be on campus the second week of April as the second annual Robert Magnin Newman Fund Lecturer. He will present:

- Thurs., Apr. 10, 5 p.m., HSW 302: "Pathology of Interstitial Irradiation of Brain Tumors."
- Fri., Apr. 11, 3 p.m., S 214: "Formation and Repair of O-Alkylated DNA Bases: Significance for Neurooncogenesis and Chemotherapy."

The lectureship is sponsored by the Brain Tumor Reseach Center and the Department of Neurological Surgery. It was established in 1981 by Walter S. and Ellen Magnin Newman in memory of their son Robert, who died of a brain tumor that March at the age of 27. Walter Newman is a member of the UCSF Board of Overseers. Ellen Magnin Newman is vice chair of the UCSF Foundation.

Have you decided not to quit smoking because you are afraid of gaining weight? The UCSF Habit Abatement Clinic now offers a free stop smoking program which also is designed to help prevent weight gain.

The clinic currently is accepting applicants between the ages of 21 and 60, who are free of heart and lung disease, high blood pressure, diabetes and mental illness. Pregnant women may not participate in the study. Other research requirements apply. Day and evening sessions are available. For further information call x67453 weekdays from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

HONORS & AWARDS

Oscar L. Frick, professor, pediatrics: Delivered the annual Wiley Memorial Lecture at the University of New Mexico in Mar. He spoke on prevention of allergies in children.

David A.O. Bracker, community health program manager, public service programs: Re-elected to a second term as first vice president, Coalition of Agencies Serving the Elderly/CASE.

APPOINTMENTS

Edwin C. Cadman, professor, medicine; director, CRI; chief, hematology/oncology: Appointed vice chair, medicine. A UCSF faculty member since 1983, Cadman was elected to the presidency of the prestigious American Federation for Clinical Research in 1984. He is well known for his studies on the biochemical activation of antineoplastic drugs and the mechanisms of drug interactions and cytotoxicity in cancer treatment.

PUBLICATIONS

Clyde A. Helms & Peter W. Callen, associate professors; James B. Vogler, III, assistant clinical professor, all radiology: Co-editors & contributors, Normal Variants & Pitfalls in Imaging (W.B. Saunders, Phila., 1986).

Piero O. Mustacchi, clinical professor, medicine & preventive medicine: Discussed the epidemiology of gastrointestinal cancer as visiting professor at the University of Cairo, Egypt, in Feb. In his capacity as head, Division of International Health Education in the Department of Epidemiology & International Health, he visited the Department of Community Medicine and the dean of the Faculty of Medicine at the University of El Azhar, a university founded in Cairo more than 1,000 years ago and considered the most prestigious religious institution in the Islamic world.

Patrick Bennett, first-year student, School of Medicine: Received an Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society $1500 summer research fellowship. He will research improved methods of wound healing under Stephen Mathes, professor & head, Division of Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery.

IN MEMORIAM

Hector Banda, administrative officer, radiology. Before he came to UCSF in 1982 he held administrative positions with Remedy Health Services & Pacific Medical Center in SF. A memorial fund has been established. Contributions may be sent to Hector Banda Memorial Trust, 185 Beaver St., SF 94114.

The first private preview of the exhibit "The New Painting: Impressionism 1874-1886" will be held as a fundraiser for the UCSF Hospitals Auxiliary on Tuesday, April 22, from 6 to 10 p.m. at the de Young Museum.

The exhibit will feature a representative cross section of works believed to have been in the original eight impressionist exhibitions held in Paris between 1874 and 1886, including works by such key artists as Monet, Pissarro, Cezanne, Caillebotte, Seurat, Renoir, Degas, Signac and Sisley.

This preview showing will benefit patients at the Medical Center at UCSF. The Hospitals Auxiliary has raised money for various hospital programs, including furnishings for the Family Lounge, and free TV and art in every patient room in the Moffitt/Long Hospitals.

Tickets at $35 per person can be purchased at the Auxiliary Office, Room 181, Moffitt Hospital or by calling x64906. Advance reservations are required by Friday, April 18.

If you would like to join a UCSF running team to be part of the American Heart Association May Day Run on Sunday, May 11, call Brigid Doyle, beeper 72-195, or leave a message in Room L 171.

The Fourth Annual Chancellor's Cup Run will be held on Thursday, April 17, at 12:15 p.m. Open to individual and team runners, the 2.2-mile race begins at the bottom of Medical Sciences Way, winds up to Mount Sutro and ends back down at Parnassus. Team runners must register by Thursday, April 10; individuals through Wednesday, April 16 at the Millberry Union Athletic Union Control Desk, and on the day of the race from 11:30 a.m. to noon at Medical Sciences Way. All runners will be entered into a drawing for race T-shirts and other prizes.

The Chancellor's Cup Race is sponsored by the Millberry Union (PRO) Recreation Department, Synapse and the Copy Factory. For further information contact Alan Tower at x62971.
